THE APPELLATION

Established in 1999 as Vin de Pays des Portes de la Méditerranée, this designation was renamed Vin de Pays de Méditerranée in 2007 and then IGP Méditerranée in 2009. Officially recognized by the European Union on January 1, 2015, this regional IGP currently encompasses 10 departments in the South-East of France.

Terre Promise Rouge 2024 Côte de Provence AOC

Varieties of grapes
Carignan, Grenache

A friendly and delightful red wine, ideal for enjoyable gatherings.

WINEMAKING

Mechanical grape harvesting

Destemming, whole berries in a stainless steel tank, daily punch-downs and pump-overs, fermentation, and malolactic fermentation.

Fermentation occurs in stainless steel tanks that are maintained at controlled temperatures.

Bottled on the estate

TASTING

Dark violet gown

Elegant and robust, featuring scents of cherries and blackcurrants along with a hint of pepper.

The palate is rich and well-structured, elegantly composed. The tannins are robust yet seamlessly integrated. The finish is crisp, featuring notes of red fruit.
